Conditions of Competition.

1. All articles for competition, except Cut Flowers, Fruit, and Vegetables must arrive at the Gardens before 2 P. M.* on the day previous to the Exhibition, accompanied by a sealed letter addressed to the Secretary containing a list of the articles sent with the following certificate: "I hereby certify that the Plants, or Flowers, (as the case may be) sent by me for competition, have been under my care for the last two months, and grown by me."

2. It shall be competent for the Judges to reduce the amount of the prizes if, in their opinion, the articles exhibited do not merit the full sums.

3. No prize shall be awarded unless there are at least two competitors for it; except in cases of rare excellence, when the Judges may specially award a prize.

* Note.—It is particularly requested that articles may be sent in early, as the prizes will be awarded the same evening.

4. When the Prize List specifies the exact number of plants, &c., to be exhibited, no exhibitor shall be allowed to exhibit more.

5. Competitors for prizes must sort their own articles, and place them in the appointed places.

6. All articles or animals sent for competition must be bona fide the produce of, or have been reared by the exhibitor, and unless otherwise specified, must have been grown or bred in Madras. The Judges may withhold any prize until proof of these conditions be produced.

7. No articles can compete for more than one prize.

8. All articles must be in full perfection, flowers in bloom.

9. Parties forwarding articles for exhibition and not for competition, will be kind enough to send information to that effect to the Honorary Secretary.

10. No articles sent for competition are to be taken away until 6 p. m. on the day of the Show, and they are then to be removed in such order as may be directed by the Honorary Secretary.

Regulations for Visitors.

1. The Exhibition will be open for the "private view" from 8 A. M. till 1 o'clock P. M., and admission between these hours will only be granted to holders of Committee tickets.

2. Members of the Society will receive Committee tickets gratis for their families and guests at their houses.

3. Persons not members of the Society can also obtain admission to the private view by purchasing tickets, which may be obtained at the Gardens the week previous to the Show, or at the gates on the morning of the Exhibition. Single ticket, Rupee 1; Family ticket, Rs. 3.

4. It is requested that members will not solicit tickets for residents in Madras, who can secure to themselves the privilege of admission under the preceding Rule, and to whom the Gardens are freely open on all ordinary occasions.

5. After the 'private view' the Exhibition will be open to the General Public from 1 o'clock to 4 P. M., when the price of admission will be 4 annas, and after that hour to 6 P. M., 2 annas. Volunteers and Soldiers in uniform, also children, free.
